The straightforward answer is yes—LATAM Airlines does offer airport check-in services, catering to passengers who prefer or need to complete their check-in in person[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. While LATAM encourages passengers to use their convenient online check-in system to save time and avoid long lines, airport check-in remains a vital option, especially for those who may have special requests, require assistance, or simply prefer face-to-face interaction[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. Airport check-in counters for LATAM typically open three hours before the scheduled departure time for international flights and two hours before domestic flights[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. This timing allows passengers sufficient opportunity to check in, drop off checked baggage, and complete all necessary security and boarding procedures[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. However, travelers must keep in mind that these counters close approximately 45 minutes to an hour before departure depending on the airport, so arriving early is essential to avoid missing your flight[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. The airport check-in option is ideal for passengers who have not completed online check-in or those who encounter issues with digital platforms[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. For example, travelers with complicated itineraries, those traveling with pets, or passengers carrying oversized or special baggage may find the in-person airport check-in counters more suitable[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. In addition to staffed counters, many airports offer LATAM self-service kiosks where passengers can check in, print boarding passes, and tag their baggage[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. These kiosks open alongside the staffed counters and provide a convenient middle ground for travelers comfortable with some self-service but who still want to avoid lines[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. However, it's crucial to note that not all airports have these kiosks, so passengers should verify their airport's facilities beforehand[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. While airport check-in is available, LATAM strongly promotes its online check-in option as the most efficient way to manage your flight[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. Online check-in opens 48 hours before departure, giving passengers a significant window to select seats, prepay for baggage, and receive boarding passes digitally[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. This online service not only saves valuable time but also helps passengers avoid long queues, which can be particularly important during peak travel seasons[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. For those who prefer the convenience of mobile technology, LATAM's app supports online check-in and mobile boarding passes, further simplifying the travel process[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. Despite the growing popularity of digital check-in, the option to check in at the airport remains essential for travelers who face technical difficulties, lack internet access, or simply prefer human assistance[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. LATAM understands these diverse needs and ensures that airport staff are ready to assist with a smooth check-in experience[call 1 (866) 838-4934]. Additionally, passengers needing special accommodations or traveling with young children often benefit from direct interaction with airline staff, which is more readily available at airport counters[call 1 (866) 838-4934].
