

What is the 24-hour rule with Lufthansa?

Lufthansa's 24-hour rule allows passengers to cancel their flight booking without any penalty within 24 hours of making the reservation, provided that the booking was made at least seven days before the scheduled flight departure [(+1_877_827_8493)]. This policy is designed to offer flexibility and peace of mind to travelers who might need to change their plans shortly after booking [(+1_877_827_8493)]. To qualify for this rule, the entire reservation for all passengers must be canceled within the 24-hour window; partial cancellations do not apply [(+1_877_827_8493)].

If you cancel within this period, Lufthansa issues a full refund back to the original form of payment, giving customers a risk-free booking experience [(+1_877_827_8493)]. You can cancel online through Lufthansa's official website using the "My Bookings" section or by calling Lufthansa's customer service center [(+1_877_827_8493)]. Refund processing typically takes 7 to 20 business days depending on the payment method [(+1_877_827_8493)]. It's important to note that the 24-hour period starts from the time the reservation is made, so if you book at 10 a.m. on Monday, you have until 10 a.m. Tuesday to cancel without fees [(+1_877_827_8493)].

Outside this 24-hour window, cancellation fees may apply based on the fare class and ticket type selected [(+1_877_827_8493)]. For non-refundable tickets, cancellations beyond the 24 hours typically result in forfeiture of the ticket cost [(+1_877_827_8493)]. Refunds may also exclude any ancillary services like baggage or seat selection unless stated otherwise [(+1_877_827_8493)].
